Good to See You!

The Travel Club's social and event programme kicks off for World Travel Market week.

Tom Nutley, Club Managing Director is inviting members, Patrons and potential new members to have a drink with him on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday 9, 10 and 11 November between 6.00-9.00pm.

It's also a great opportunity for industry executives to have a look round the club.

As Tom points out: "As soon as people see the club for themselves and understand the unique atmosphere, totally different from a faceless hotel, they are hooked!"

The club is planning a year-round social and events programme starting in January 2010. Watch this space!

WTTC Chief open's Club in Style

The iconic Morgan car, admired and loved by fans the world over, says something about style and panache.

That's why Jean-Claude Baumgarten, President of the WTTC (World Travel & Tourism Council) brought his beloved Morgan racer to the beautiful Georgian building of The Travel Club last month when he performed the opening ceremony.

"The Travel Club is definitely for management with good taste who like English style", said Tom Nutley, Club Managing Director.

Baumgarten, one of the club's Patrons, said: "Since Thomas Cook started his operations, London has always been at the forefront of Travel and Tourism. WTTC quite naturally chose to have its headquarters in this busy city.

"Travel and Tourism is one of the first industries in the world. What was missing was a place where its leaders could meet in a convivial environment to show how important our industry has become. The Travel Club will do just that."

Nancy Astor and All That!

Nancy Astor, first women Member of Parliament in the UK, whose London home was The Travel Club building, expressed strong words about the position of the fairer sex!

American Nancy, beautiful, tempestuous and outspoken, declared: "Women have got to make the world safe for men since men have made it so darned unsafe for women."

Somehow we think she would approve of so many industry women becoming members of The Travel Club.

Industry Associations Sign Up

The Travel Club is working with leading industry associations offering benefits to members throughout the world.

They include PATA, PATA UK, WTTC, CEFTA, the Passenger Shipping Association, ETOA and The Tourism Society.
